Recap of February SBA and YLD Events

On February 16, 2023, the Savannah Bar Association held its monthly luncheon at the Savannah Golf Club. A resolution in honor of the late Jack Keith Berry, who died on August 24, 2022, was read by C. James McCallar, Jr. The guest speaker at the luncheon was Sarah B. “Sally” Akins, the 60th president of the State Bar of Georgia. Sally, a mediator at Miles Mediation and of counsel at Ellis Painter, spoke about the effort to have April declared Legal Professionalism Month in Georgia, the move of the State Bar’s Savannah office from Bay Street to Hodgson Memorial Drive, and the recent unauthorized incursion into the State Bar website. She also reminded attendees about the Lawyer Assistance Program, which entitles members to six prepaid clinical sessions per calendar year.

The SBA’s Young Lawyers Division wrapped up the month with its monthly happy hour at Savoy Society on February 23, 2023. Thanks to all who attended!

Jury Finds Athens, Ga. Doctor Responsible for Death of Former Athens Musician and Business Owner, Returns $4.36 Million Verdict

On Feb. 8, 2023, a jury in the State Court of Clarke County in Athens, Ga. returned an $4.36 million verdict against Athens Heart Center, P.C. and Dr. Subodh Agrawal after a six-day trial focusing on the wrongful death of popular Athens musician and restaurant owner Juan Molina following a routine, elective diagnostic cardiac procedure.

Molina died on August 25, 2017 after undergoing a diagnostic cardiac catheterization at St. Mary's Hospital in Athens, Ga. that resulted in a fatal ventricle perforation. During a left ventricular chamber angiogram, also known as a ventriculogram, Dr. Agrawal tore and perforated Molina's left ventricle wall by inserting a multipurpose catheter into the ventricle wall and injecting radiocontrast into the wall of the heart. Dr. Agrawal failed to recognize the severity and danger of the perforation to Molina's left ventricle wall and failed to take corrective action in light of the perforated ventricle.

The jury determined that Molina's death was due to medical malpractice on the part of Dr. Agrawal. After 16 hours of deliberation, the jury awarded $3.5 million for the value of Molina's life, plus $500,000 for pain and suffering and $60,000 in medical and funeral expenses.

Harris Lowry Manton LLP partner Steve Lowry served as the lead trial attorney, with co-counsel James E. Carter of James E. Carter, LLC and Harris Lowry Manton LLP Associate Caitlyn Clark. Lowry issued the following statement after the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff:

"Juan Molina was a remarkably talented musician and local business owner who was loved by the Athens community and had a bright future. We were honored to represent Juan's family in this case and sincerely hope this verdict sends a clear message about the important responsibility physicians have to provide the quality of care required by law to every patient."

A longtime Athens, Ga. resident, Molina was known for playing in popular local bands including Little Tigers, The Squalls, Time Toy and Go Van Go and was also the co-owner of local restaurants Broad Street Coffee and Echo. Molina was born on January 26, 1959 in Havana, Cuba and earned a B.A. in Psychology from the University of Georgia.

On behalf of Georgia Legal Services Program, we want to thank the following attorneys for volunteering their legal services to the Pro Bono Program in 2022. With the help of these volunteers, we were able to serve over 140 people who might not otherwise have received assistance. Our volunteers drafted wills and powers of attorney for local seniors, represented survivors of domestic violence at protective order hearings, assisted grandparents in getting guardianship of children in their care, cleared criminal records that were preventing clients from obtaining better housing and employment, and probated estates for clients. Our volunteers also provided advice and counsel on record restriction matters through the GLSP Record Restriction State Signature Project. We are fortunate to have an outstanding group of lawyers in our community who are willing to give their time and expertise to help those in need. We truly appreciate your contribution to serving those who otherwise cannot afford legal services.
